

Prisma is a felt rug created by joining with the Punto Rete double layer woven felt elements bordered with the Punto Pettine.

The hexagons with a size of about cm 30 x 30 are joined together with a stitching in the same colour.

The floor can be seen through the gaps between the elements.

Only one colour can be chosen.

This rug can be produced only with a double layer of felt.

