

Zoe is a modular rug created with a wool cord in mélangé colours; it is available in three versions.

Version 1

The surface of the rug consists of 30 x 30 cm modules in wool cords; the cord is wound up in spiral-like designs which are then sewn according to an alternated geometrical sequence.

Only one colour can be chosen.

Version 2

The surface of the rug consists of 30 x 30 cm modules in wool cords; The cord is wound up in spiral-like designs which are then sewn with an orthogonal placement.

In the spaces between the modules, handmade designs are inserted.

Only one colour can be chosen for the modules and only one colour can be chosen for the design.

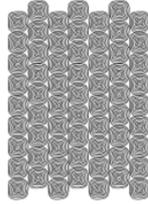

Version 3

The surface of the rug consists of a single round, square or pentagonal element which is created by winding up the cord in spiral-like design.

Only one colour or only one combination of more colours can be chosen among the options featured in the sample collection.

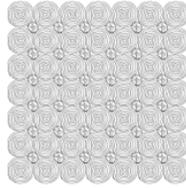

The materials and the production technique advise against the use of the versions 1 and 2 of Zoe in high traffic areas.
